

You're about to be BULLIED!

A proposed mega-merger of two pharmacy benefit “middle men” – Express Scripts and Medco – stands to threaten your access to community pharmacy services.

You could be forced to get your prescriptions through the mail-order pharmacy of this new and huge middle man – instead of from the community pharmacy of your choice. Even the drugs available to you could change, based on what makes more money for the middle man instead of what makes sense for your health.

This new company would be too big ... would have too little competition ... and would have too much control. That is bad for healthcare costs, quality and access.

Tell the Federal Trade Commission to block the merger of Express Scripts and Medco. Your healthcare can't handle a bigger bully.
