

Involved in Politics? Let Us Know

By Michael F. Conlan

Your calls and e-mails to members of Congress led to the passage of H.R. 6331 last summer, which included key pharmacy protection provisions. With the elections now behind us and additional pharmacy issues awaiting resolution in the new Congress, NCPA would like to get a better understanding of your involvement in the political process, including your relationships and contacts with your senators and representative—especially newly elected ones.

The information you provide is completely confidential and will only be used to help NCPA identify politically active pharmacists. We will not sell or give this data to anyone else.

Filling out this form (online at www.pharmacistelink.com/index, or fax to 703-683-6375) will provide NCPA with invaluable information that could lead to future victories for all of community pharmacy. Please take a minute to provide your information.

Thank you!

Michael F. Conlan is editor of America's Pharmacist.
